DANNY B HARVEY is best known as the guitarist for the super group HeadCat (a band he formed with Lemmy from Motorhead and Slim Jim Phantom from Stray Cats) but he was also a founding member of The Original Neo-Rockabilly band The Rockats and his dynamic “White Striped of Country” duo The Lonesome Spurs. Danny has produced, recorded, and performed with Wanda Jackson, Nancy Sinatra, Johnny Ramone, Levi Dexter, and The Swing Cats. This past year Danny B released a CD and toured with his Goth’n’Roll band The 69 Cats, which features vocalist Jyrki 69 from The 69 Eyes, drummer Clem Burke from Blondie, and former Cramps bassist Chopper Franklin.

ANNIE MARIE LEWIS is the niece of Jerry Lee Lewis, daughter of Linda Gail Lewis, and cousin of Mickey Gilley—she has the genealogy, the roots, and the direct blood connection to the first family of Rock’n’Roll. Annie Marie has been opening shows for Jerry Lee with her mama ever since she was a teenager and has also sung backups with Van Morrison and toured the world with her mama, Linda Gail. Recently she hooked up with the Texas Rockabilly Vampire Danny B Harvey and has spent the last year touring with him as a duo and a guest singer with his band The 69 Cats. Annie Marie is the real deal-true Rock’n’Roll Royalty. --- rockprogblog.com

Lemmy Kilmister was the epitome of rock 'n' roll. His childhood pre-dated rock's existence and he experienced the true rise of the rowdy, rebellious genre from its most infantile state to the diverse family tree it has spawned through the present. In this previously unreleased track, Lem joined his Headcat bandmate Danny B. Harvey alongside Annie Marie Lewis, the niece of early rock pioneer Jerry Lee Lewis. --- loudwire.com
