Booker T. and the M.G.'s, Lone Star Roadhouse, 240 West 52d Street (245-2950). In the 1960's, the keyboardist Booker T. Jones led the Stax Records studio band that backed up many of the great Memphis soul hits and, as the M.G.'s (for Memphis Group), had some hits of its own with instrumentals like the supremely uncluttered "Green Onions." This weekend, Mr. Jones is to reconvene the M.G.'s with the guitarist Steve Cropper and the bassist Donald (Duck) Dunn. Eddie Floyd, who had the M.G.'s behind him when he made "Knock on Wood" in 1966, is to join them. ---nytimes.com/1990/01/19

Highlights include "Hip Hugger," "Hang Em High," which was originally recorded as the theme song for the Clint Eastwood spaghetti western of the same name, and the eternal "Green Onions," which opens the show. Shortly after this tour ended, the MG's disbanded again, and Cropper and Dunn went on to form The Blues Brothers Band with John Belushi and Dan Ackroyd.
