

Richie Kotzen - Bi-Polar Blues (1999)

Wpisany przez bluesever

Poniedziałek, 04 Styczeń 2010 12:55 - Zmieniony Wtorek, 18 Czerwiec 2013 13:39

Richie Kotzen - Bi-Polar Blues (1999)

01. Gone Tommorrow Blues
02. Tied to You
03. They're Red Hot
04. Tobacco Road
05. Broken Man Blues
06. The Thrill Is Gone
07. From Four Till Late
08. A Step Away
09. Burn It Down
10. No Kinda Hero
11. Richie's Boogie

Musicians: Richie Kotzen (vocals, organ, Wurlitzer organ, bass guitar, drums); Rob Harrington (bass on "Tobacco Road" & "Thrill Is Gone"); Matt Luneau (drums).

Every rock guitarist at some point in their career will make a blues album, and in this respect, Richie Kotzen is no different to anybody else. What sets him apart though, is his choice of material which shows that he does not follow the well trodden path of others, using no over-used blues standards as might have been expected. When approaching albums such as this, one is always thinking "sell-out" or "pad-out" - i.e. putting an album out just to fulfill recording contract requirements, but this is genuine, heartfelt material and the choice of "Tobacco Road" rams this point well and truly home - it is awesome in it's delivery and execution and certainly not a song that you would expect to find on a blues oriented album. As ever, Ritchie's guitar is clipped, to the point and well balanced, not the meandering, lengthy and pointless solo's that so many lay down these days and of course then there is his achingly beautiful voice that can soar over the song or cut through it like a knife through butter - just wonderful stuff! --- J. M. Green "john94682" (Sutton Coldfield)

Richie Kotzen - Bi-Polar Blues (1999)

Wpisany przez bluesever

Poniedziałek, 04 Styczeń 2010 12:55 - Zmieniony Wtorek, 18 Czerwiec 2013 13:39

download: uploaded anonfiles mega 4shared mixturecloud yandex mediafire zidd
u

back