Oscar Benton Blues Band – The Blues Is Gonna Wreck My Life (1969)

A1 I Ain't Got The Feeling 2:43 A2 Five Long Years 4:59 A3 How The Blues Got Me 6:54 A4 Five Hundred Miles 2:50 B1 Have You Seen My Wife 2:28 B2 I'm A Blue Blues Singer 2:25 B3 The Blues Is Gonna Wreck My Life 4:51 B4 Dedicated To Lofton (Part II) 2:28 B5 My Sweet Angel 4:56 Oscar Benton (Ferdinand van Eif) — guitar, vocals
Barrelhouse Bailey (Hans van Dam) — piano H.J.B. Hawkins (Peter van Kouteren) — bass
Lonesome Tanny Lant (Herman Souverein) — drums

Oscar Benton (born Ferdinand van Eis, 3 February 1949 in Haarlem) is a Dutch vocalist. He is also the founder of the Oscar Benton Blues Band in 1967. The band rose to fame in 1968 by being a runner up in the Jazz Festival, Loosdrecht, the Netherlands.

In 1968, the Oscar Benton Blues Band released its first album, Feel so good. In 1969, they released the album The Blues Is Gonna Wreck My Life. In 1971, they released Benton ‘71.

download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto gett bayfiles

back