While most gutiarists of his generation are either no longer with us, or a mere shadow of their former selves, Alvin Lee's gutiar playing is better than ever. From the opening licks of "Keep On Rockin" through a great cover of the Beatles "I Want You(she's so Heavy)" This is the work of a true master in top form. "The Bluest Blues" features George Harrison on slide as well as one of the greatest gutiar solos of Alvin's career. Anyone who enjoys great gutiar playing (there seems to be very little of that these days) will love this album. Rock On Alvin! --- Dan Gustafson, amazon.com
