Twice nominated by The Washington Blues Society, Island legend Janie Cribbs and the T.Rust Band have just released their first full length CD titled "Believe" - and you can trust that they have the goods to make you do just that!

Guaranteed to get your feet moving and your spirit soaring, their live show is quickly gaining praise for the band's impressive musicianship, personality and raw energy exerted every time they take the stage.

Janie's vocal work sets the band apart with her extraordinary range - from a sultry whisper to a sizzling shout out and from the worlds of lonesome blue highways and midnight revivals.

Joe Reggiatore is a one-of-a-kind guitar player who amazes audiences, spellbinding them with his distinct sound and style on numerous acoustic and electric guitars with his riveting to watch rippin' approach to slide playing.

Add veteran master electric fretless bass-player Greg Barnes throwing down the groove and the exciting showmanship and rhythms of percussion and drums from the incomparable Kevin
