Jackie McLean - A Ghetto Lullaby (1973)

A1 Jack's Tune 11:02 A2 Mode For Jay Mac 9:08 B1 Where Is Love? 5:26 B2 Callin' 8:30 B3 A Ghetto Lullaby 7:14 Alto Saxophone – Jackie McLean Bass – Niels-Henning Ørsted Pedersen Drums – Alex Riel Piano – Kenny Drew

Within a five day period in 1973, altoist Jackie McLean, who had only made one album (a live set) between 1968-72, cut enough material for five records. This worthy set features his intense style in a quartet with pianist Kenny Drew, bassist Niels Pedersen and drummer Alex Riel, recorded live at Montmartre in Copenhagen. Although the material -- Drew's "Callin'," the ballad "Where Is Love," a pair of William Gault songs and McLean's "Jack's Tune" -- is not all that memorable, the altoist's passionate solos and very distinctive sound uplift the music and make this an advanced hard bop set worth acquiring. ---Scott Yanow, AllMusic Review
