"Grazyna Auguscik is not merely a vocalist but, rather a musician who has a purpose for every note she sings, for every phrase she lingers upon — or dramatically cuts short. There are no throwaway notes, no glib theatrics, no self-congratulatory turns of phrase here: Auguscik has intelligence to use her voice in thoroughly unexpected ways". "... Grazyna is emerging as an individual voice in a world of sound-alike singers ... Auguscik approaches the art of jazz singing with fervor and intensity. She treats even the most well-worn fare with a spirit of adventure ..."
