Recorded at the VIII "Jazz at Hermitage Garden" festival in Moscow, on the 20th of August 2005. "More than four thousand people gathered in this attractive park in the heart of the city, many of them came in order to hear the ensemble of Valery Kiselyov. In my opinion, the performance of the Classic Jazz Ensemble of Valery Kiselyov was one of the most prominent of the festival". ---Michael, Green, kiselyovjazz.ru

A famous clarinet and saxophone player from Moscow, Valery Kiselyov is one of the most interesting and energetic representatives of the jazz tradition in Russian music. The number of jazz standard arrangements he produced has long been claiming a place in the Guinness World Records. Indeed, the variety of concert programs Valery has prepared with his favorite Classic Jazz Ensemble is hard to match.

Despite any changes in the line-up of musicians, you will recognize the signature sound of both the Ensemble and Valery Kiselyov himself as soon as the music starts playing. While preparing programs dedicated to his icons Benny Goodman or Duke Ellington, Valery does not attempt to simulate their performance. Instead, he delicately preserves the spirit of their masterpieces, making one more declaration of love to these giants of world jazz. ---Michael Green,
