This is an extraordinarily beautiful collection of music. I have enjoyed it since it came out originally in LP form in 1978 and purchased it again as a CD in 1995, so that I could play it on the CD decks in my office and car. These are two places where the pastoral quality and calming effect of these performances are particularly welcome.

The blending of flute and harp comes off extremely well, and there is not a low point in the entire collection. ---Daniel G. Berk, amazon.com
