Hey everyone! I'm an instrumental music composer from Australia. I create music to help people drift away in to another world, even if only for a short amount of time. Imagination is one of the most amazing gifts we have and music sparks so much inspiration to those with a creative mind.

All the support received through Patreon will be used to improve my equipment and to buy more sound libraries, so as to get better results on future videos and compositions. In addition, all Patreon supporters will receive rewards or tokens of my appreciation for their support.

There are so many things i want to bring to you, like official videos for releases, live orchestral ensembles playing my music and great quality footage capturing my music and what it is to create. These things are EXPENSIVE but so worth it when accomplished, so with your help my dreams can become reality. ---Peter Gundry, patreon.com/PeterGundryComposer
