A Midsummer Night's Dream, Op.61 Incidental Music - English version - Finale: "Though this house give glimm'ring light" Arleen Augér Ann Murray Ambrosian Singers Philharmonia Orchestra and Chorus Neville Marriner – conductor

This music is sheer beauty. Very tuneful with many intricate embellishments between the strings and brass. Tones both loud and soft are so pleasing to the ear. And the role of the singers fits the scene perfectly. In other words plenty of balance. I am a little biased but I always loved the Wedding March. And the Philharmonia Orchestra certainly performs it so well. The Nocturne that precedes it also holds a tender moment in my heart and soul. There is so much to digest of this fine Mendelssohn work that I am sure that it will be a treasure for my ears for many years to come. You will not go wrong. --- G. J Wiener, amazon.com
