Video containing the concert of Mark Knopfler and Emmylou Harris in Verona, taken from the All the roadrunning world tour 2006. It's an outdoor concert, very good picture and sound quality. Some great close ups. The sound quality is really great as the sound of the soundboard recording (radio broadcast on German NDR radio) is mixed with the video. Unfortunately video of Right Now and Red staggerwing is missing from this concert. The first soundboard recording from the All the roadrunning tour 2006, recorded at the beautiful arena of Verona. The show was broadcasted in two parts (21st and 28th August 2006) on German NDR radio. Initially, the Hamburg 2006 show would be broadcasted, but due to technical problems, this recording failed and the radio station got permission to record and broadcast the Verona concert instead. So here it is; great quality, very good versions. A really great recording to listen to!
